

Terms and Conditions

1. All of our equipment are in good working condition and will be checked by our staffs before renting out the studio to clients.
2. The client will be responsible for taking care of the equipment during the rental period and will be liable for any damage/loss of equipment (inclusive of consequential damage) incurred during the duration of the rental. We will not be responsible for any liabilities incurred while using the equipment during the rental period.
3. Should the equipment break down during the rental period, the client will have to inform us about the issue immediately. We will service the faulty equipment twice. Additional charges will be imposed should the client require us to service the equipment more than twice.
4. Should there be any postponement or cancellation, the client should notify us at least 2 working days prior to the booking date. Failing to do so will result in the deposit/payment not able to refund. Any cancellation/postponement made within 24 hours before the rental date will be deemed as null and the client will have to bear the full cost of rental charges. A grace period of 1 month from the original rental date will be granted in the event that the notification of postponement was made as per the period stipulated above. This is subject to the availability of the studio room or said equipment. Any postponement exceeding the 1 month grace period will deem the studio rental void.
5. In the event of accidents, civil chaos, war, natural disasters or any other unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of any party, the non-performance on the part of GAZ shall not be constructed as a breach of rental contract and hence, no party shall be entitled to seek or be liable for any redress by the way of any legal proceedings or otherwise.
6. Our rental contract is binding in law and irrevocable.
